Sir:

Applicants acknowledge receipt of the Decision dismissing petition under 37 CFR §1.47(b) mailed August 12, 2002 responding to the Response to Notification of Missing Requirements filed July 29, 2002.

In the Decision, it was noted that the July 29, 2002 Response satisfied all of the requirements as set forth under 37 CFR §1.47(b) with the exception of requirement (5).

In the Decision, with respect to requirement (5) it was alleged that Petitioner has not presented any evidence of proprietary interest in the present application. The Decision indicated that such could be shown by a Legal Memorandum signed by an Attorney familiar with the law of the relevant jurisdiction stating that a court of competent jurisdiction would by weight of authority in that jurisdiction award title of the invention to the Applicant in accordance with 37 CFR §1.47(b).

Attached is such a Legal Memorandum signed by an Attorney licensed to practice law in Great Britain, the jurisdiction in which the invention was made by the sole inventor Peter Cooper. As set forth in the Legal Memorandum title to the invention DIGITAL CAMERA as set forth in application Serial No. 10/020,870, filed December 19, 2001 would have passed to the Applicant, Nokia Corporation of Espoo, Finland, in accordance with 37 CFR §1.47(b) in view of the laws of Great Britain.

Therefore, based on the above, Petitioner has now provided evidence of a proprietary interest in the above-referenced application. Accordingly, Nokia Corporation should be allowed to pursue as the Applicant the patenting of the invention set forth in the present application in accordance with 37 CFR §1.47(b).

To the extent necessary, applicants petition for an extension of time under 37 C.F.R. section 1.136. Please charge any shortage in the fees due in connection with the filing of this paper, including extension of time fees, to the deposit account of Antonelli, Terry, Stout & Kraus, LLP Deposit Account No. 01-2135 (Case No. 367.41017X00) and please credit any excess fees to such Deposit Account.

Respectfully submitted,
